

7. LEGITIMATION, AUSF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Description of the Service: The legal process by which a child born out of wedlock is granted the same legal rights, privileges, and status as a child born within a valid marriage. Legitimation typically involves establishing a legal relationship between the child and the father, providing the child with the same rights of inheritance, support, and other legal benefits enjoyed by children born within a lawful marriage or the biological father and the mother of the child typically need to acknowledge and establish the paternity of the child.
